REMARKS AND INTERVIEW SUMMARY

In the Office Action, the Examiner rejected claims 34-66 and allowed claims 1-33 and 67-92. By the present response, Applicants have amended claims 34 and 47. These amendments do not add any new matter. Upon entry of these amendments, claims 1-92 will be pending in the present application and are believed to be in condition for allowance.

In accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.133 and M.P.E.P. § 713.04, Applicants present the following summary of a telephonic interview between Examiner Ryan F. Pitaro, and Applicants' Attorney, Michael G. Fletcher, Reg. No. 32,777, conducted on July 17, 2007. In this interview, the rejection of claims 34-66 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) was discussed. Specifically, the discussion included proposed amendments to independent claims 34 and 47 which recite, in pertinent part, as currently amended:

Claim 34: "communicating the personal information and the work information from the host computer only to a third device dedicated to the family manager."

Claim 47: "communicating the personal information and the work information related to the first family manager from the first host computer only to a third device dedicated to the first family manager;
communicating the personal information and the work information related to the second family manager from the second host computer only to a sixth device dedicated to the second family manager."

In the interview, Examiner noted that the proposed amendments to independent claims 34 and 47 would overcome the rejection of claims 34-66 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e), Applicants have amended independent claims 34 and 47 accordingly. As such, claims 1-92 are now in condition for allowance.

Conclusion

In view of the foregoing, Applicants submit that the application, including claims 1-92, is in condition for allowance, and such action is hereby solicited. If any points remain in issue which the Examiner feels may be best resolved through a telephone interview, he is kindly requested to contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
